

In Gratitude: a song

-Kara Kreter

Oh faith is a mountain,
we all have to climb
To lay it on down
In the fullness of time

Yeah, hope is a river
It carries me
From the depths of the earth
To the arms of the Sea

Oh I found You,
Wonderful You
When I stopped looking
Oh I found You, beautiful You
When I closed my eyes
And saw with the eyes of faith.

Love is a garden
It grows in time
As you walk with me here
Through Your patient design

And Grace is an ocean
It beckons me
Come drown all your troubles
Darling, just be

Oh I found You,
Wonderful You
When I stopped looking
Oh I found You, beautiful You
When I closed my eyes
And saw with a heart of Love

I looked with my soul
And there You were Waiting for me all this time
To seek and believe
To be still and know
Oh I've found You, darling forever

Oh I've found You, oh now You're mine
Oh I've found You, and no one can take me away
I am Yours through the end of time
