

Lullaby: for my boys.

-Kara Kreter

Come my love

Lay down your head

And rest with me awhile

I'll cover you

With prayers and love

And wake you with a smile

Hush my dear

The future's unclear,

But brighter than the sun

There's no room

For fear tonight

For Love has overcome

Rest my dear

For Heaven draws near

With comforts from above

To kiss your

sweet little cheeks

And tuck you in with love
